Career path shows the lines of progression through which employees typically move in his career. Career planning is a process for becoming aware of self, opportunities, constraints, choices, consequences, identifying career related' goals and undertaking developmental activities to achieve the goals.

Concluding Remark: - This will help the individual to explore, choose and strive to derive satisfaction from his/her own career. Career planning should not focus only on vertical hierarchical growth but should also offer psychological success. It is not an event or an end in itself, but a continuous process for developing human resource in order to achieve maximum result.
