Orientation and Insight into Entrepreneurship Development Cell and Business Consultancy Cell

- Name of the Event : Orientation Program
- Date of Event : 24th July 2024
- Conducted by : Entrepreneurship Development cell and Business Consultancy Cell
- Venue : Auditorium Hall

The session led by Mr. Kaustubha K. Sawant, attended by 236 students from SYBMS, SYBBA, and MCA (Integrated) II & III years, effectively introduced the fundamentals of entrepreneurship and the resources available through the Entrepreneurship Development (ED) and Business Consultancy (BC) Cell. Mr. Sawant outlined that entrepreneurship involves more than just starting a business; it requires a mind-set of creativity, innovation, and risk-taking, crucial for success in any field. He emphasized the cell's role in mentoring and coaching students, organizing relevant workshops and seminars, and providing access to vital resources like funding and expert advice. The cell, established in 2019, acts as a bridge between academic knowledge and practical application, aiming to nurture the entrepreneurial spirit among students.

The session also reviewed past activities of the ED and BC Cell, including guest lectures, entrepreneurship workshops, BI-to-BI competitions, and success stories of student entrepreneurs. These activities highlighted the cell's effectiveness in supporting entrepreneurial growth. Looking ahead, the session previewed exciting future initiatives such as networking opportunities with established entrepreneurs, platforms for pitching business ideas, and additional efforts to cultivate an entrepreneurial mind-set. This forward-looking approach motivated students, encouraging them to engage actively with upcoming events and pursue their entrepreneurial ambitions with renewed enthusiasm and confidence. The program successfully prepared students to navigate the business world and underscored the essential role of entrepreneurship in economic and personal development.

Tree Plantation Drive on the Occasion of Independence Day Celebration

- Name of the Event : Tree Plantation Drive
- Date of Event : 15th August 2024
- Conducted by : National Service Scheme
- Venue : RCPET's IMRD campus and Residential Areas

On 15th August 2024, NSS unit of RCPET's Institute of Management Research and Development, Shirpur, organized a "Tree Plantation Drive" to commemorate Independence Day. The event aimed to promote environmental sustainability, patriotism, and community engagement.

The event commenced at 7:20 am with a flag hoisting ceremony held on the ground. The ceremony instilled a sense of national pride and unity among the participants. Following the flag hoisting, a patriotic rally was conducted, starting from the Institute campus and proceeding through Karvand Naka, colony areas, and Shahada road. The rally aimed to promote national unity and pride, with participants displaying patriotic slogans and banners.

The tree plantation drive began at the Institute campus and extended to the volunteers' residential areas. The NSS unit distributed plants to volunteers, who were encouraged to plant trees in their respective areas and ensure proper care and maintenance. The drive was conducted under the theme "एक पेड़ माँ के नाम" (One Tree in Mother's Name), emphasizing the significance of nurturing nature as a tribute to motherhood.

The drive significantly contributed to environmental sustainability by increasing green cover in the campus and residential areas. The combination of the rally and tree plantation activities fostered a strong sense of patriotism and community engagement among participants. The event successfully promoted social responsibility and leadership among volunteers, encouraging them to take an active role in community development and environmental conservation. The enthusiastic participation of volunteers and staff members ensured the effective execution of the event, promoting key values of environmental sustainability, patriotism, and community responsibility.
